

- played on flat roof above garage...walked along the edge (of the roof), 115K0:03:30, 115K0:04:30
- Businesses
- Automobiles
 Charlie's Central Garage, large garage on Brunswick...went from the front to the lane., 115K0:05:00
 Charlie's Central Garage, "now a parkette" Kashin family lived above the garage, 115K0:02:30
- Bakeries
 similar to Harbord Bakery but better, 115K0:13:00
- Corner stores along Harbord etc., 115K0:12:00
 Platt's, 115K0:30:00
- Delivery
 fresh chickens, 115K0:34:30
- Grainer's drug store
 "now a restaurant...a great drugstore," 115K0:15:00
- Greenspan Butcher (Colman), 115K0:12:00
- Kensington Market
 "remember them slaughtering chicken," 115K0:29:30
- Movie theatres, 115K0:20:00 along Bloor St. and College St., 115K0:31:30
- Platt's grocery store, 115K0:12:00
- Restaurants
 along Harbord, "were houses at one time," 115K0:14:00
- Tanenbaum's poultry
 sold for over a million dollars, 115K0:37:30 wanted to build a slaughterhouse on Brunswick Ave., 115K0:01:00
- Children & Youth
- Dating
 groups of guys and girls at dances etc., 115K0:48:30 meeting husband at age 16 etc., 115K0:45:30
- Other
 childhood friends, still, "I was a tomboy" had close friend Ruthie "taught me how to dress," 115K0:22:00
 "this one gal I didn't like, so I put down a piece of cake on the chair," 115K0:46:00
- Playing & games games played, 115K0:24:00 games played and marbles, 115K0:28:30 in laneways, "lots of things always happened there," 115K0:26:30
- Social clubs dances at Young Judaea, 115K0:42:00
 Jewish Y dances, "more social than anything else," 115K0:41:00
- Education
 Orde Street Public School
 Orde Open Air program for kids with health issues, 115K0:25:00
- Houses of Worship
 Narayever Synagogue
 "a very Orthodox synagogue," 115K0:16:30
- Housing & Home Life
- Backyards
 gardening, vegetable garden on roof above auto repair garage, 115K0:04:00 rickety garage...wonderful edible garden, 115K0:43:00
- Heating
 coal, then switched to oil, 115K0:35:00
- Kitchens
 cooking with a wood-burning stove, 115K0:20:30
- Laneways
- Children & youth
 "we played up in the lane...lots of things always happening there" etc., 115K0:26:30
- Names
- Goldsteins
 owners of Hy and Zel's drugstore, 115K0:17:00
- Grainer, Lou
 "a great guy," owner of Grainer's drug store, 115K0:15:30
- Kashin, Charlie (father of Marion) he was tough, 115K0:06:30 immigrated from Russia and discussion of his education and skills etc., 115K0:08:00 owner of Charlie's Central Garage, 115K0:06:30 welding and crane accident, 115K0:09:00
- Kashin, Marion becoming a sculptor, 115K0:42:30 discussion on visiting extended family in the neighbourhood, 115K0:18:00

Tanenbaum's poultry, Charlie's Central Garage and Marion Kashin's family

- education and getting a job, 115K0:39:00
- father showed her how to weld, 115K0:06:00
- "I was a tomboy" had close friend Ruthie
"taught me how to dress," 115K0:22:00
- lived at 188 Brunswick St. from 1943-1957, 115K0:00:30
- living with Aunt Jenny and other family members when her mother had polio,
115K0:18:30
- married Ron at age 21, "the sweetest guy" etc., 115K0:47:00
- memories of close-knit family and relationship to aunt etc., 115K0:51:00
- Kashin, Marion (aunt of) discussion of aunt taking care of Marion,
115K0:20:00
- Kashin, Marion (grandmother of)
"a real character...took her to bingo,"
115K0:21:00
- Kashin, Marion (mother of) had polio, 115K0:18:30 petition by Mrs. Kashin not to have Tanenbaum's slaughterhouse on Brunswick Ave. "she didn't want to have all the rats and horrible things running around" etc., 115K0:01:00
- Kashin, Ron and Alan owners of Grainer's drug store, 115K0:15:30
- Tanenbaum family
sold location of business for over a million dollars, 115K0:37:30
- Neighbourhood & Community
 - Gentrification
homes gentrified and "lovelified,"
115K0:38:30
 - Jewish Community Centre (JCC) Jewish Y dances, "more social than anything else," 115K0:41:00
Marion Kashin taught art there, 115K0:39:30
 - Neighbours and neighbours' relations discussion of various neighbours of Marion Kashin...knew families very well,
115K0:15:30
 - Parks & playgrounds
Charlie's Central Garage became a parkette,
115K0:36:30
 - Safety
no real issues...only danger was kids running on the streets, 115K0:44:00
- Occupations & Finances
 - Income
 - father squandering income, mother saved every penny, 115K0:11:00
 - Mechanics
discussion on Charlie Kashin's skill at auto repair, 115K0:06:30 Marion Kashin's father a mechanic at Charlie's Central Garage,
115K0:02:30
 - Women working
"most women stayed at home," 115K0:45:00
 - Real Estate
Tanenbaum's poultry, Petrov and Rosen homes, 115K0:38:00
 - Streets & Intersections Brunswick Ave., 188 home of Marion Kashin from 1943-1957,
115K0:00:30
 - Transportation
 - Automobiles
"don't recall too many cars for sure,"
115K0:33:00
Sunday drives in the fancy cars from Charlie's Central Garage,
115K0:07:00
 - Streetcars along Harbord St...on own as a child taking brother by streetcar to hospital,
115K0:31:00
taking streetcar on own as a child, 115K0:26:00